

World Literature

Year B

Date	Assignment	Materials	PA Standard(s)	Initials
Monday Jan. 30 th	Tableaux.	Lit. Book and folders
Tuesday Jan. 31 st	Research concentration camps. Bring notes to class.
Wednesday Feb. 1 st	Read chapter 7 as a class.
Thursday Feb. 2 nd	Write an informational essay on a particular concentration camp. 1-2 pages.
Friday Feb. 3 rd	Read chapters 8-9 We will learn how to annotate next week!

Unit: Novel-The Hiding Place

World Literature

Year B

Types of Writing 1.4.10.A

Write poems, short stories, and plays.

Quality of Writing 1.5.10.E Review, evaluate, revise, edit, and proofread writing to improve style, word choice, sentence variety, and subtlety or meaning.

1.3.12 Reading, Analyzing, and Interpreting Lit.

Identify and analyze characteristics of genres (satire, parody, allegory, pastoral) that overlap or cut across the lines of genre classifications such as poetry, prose, drama, short story, essay, and editorial.

Unit: Short Story

Literature/Writing Objectives:

1. Interpret literary elements in short stories with special emphasis on plot, character, setting, irony, point of view, and theme.
2. Apply a variety of reading strategies to short stories with emphasis on ways that readers make meaning from a text.
3. Learn and use new words.
4. Plan, draft, revise, edit, proof, and publish a narrative, a character analysis, an evaluation, and a short story analysis.
5. Write sentences using models, revise sentence fragments and sentence beginnings, and correct run-on sentences.

Language/Grammar Objectives:

1. Identify words as singular or plural.
2. To select verbs that agree in number with their subjects.
3. To write sentences with verbs that agree with their subjects.
4. To write sentences with singular and plural collective nouns.
5. To use don't and doesn't correctly in sentences.

Reading, Analyzing, and Interpreting Literature-Fiction and Non-Fiction. 1.3.10

World Literature

Year B

